To perspective applicants:

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, in Fort Thomas, Kentucky, is an active and dynamic parish serving the needs of its members and the surrounding community with love and joy. Our ministry to the community includes Christian education and spiritual formation, Bible study, healing ministry and prayer groups, outreach to soldiers and veterans, after school programs, summer intergenerational formation events, youth ministry, award winning vocal and handbell choirs for all ages, and much, much more.

We are currently seeking the right individual to put their skills and talents to work in our amazing Music Ministry program that includes working alongside adults and children as an integral part of our parish formation.

If you believe yourself called to this exciting and fulfilling ministry, please look over the Job Description and consider submitting a resume. Deadline for submissions is Friday, August 5th, at 5pm.
